WITH SCHOLARONE MANUSCRIPTS™ AND AMERICAN JOURNAL EXPERTS

WHAT IT DELIVERS:

- Specialty review experts in hundreds of scientific fields
- A no-cost solution to publishers for dealing with the explosion of international papers
- Reduction in poorly written manuscripts from non-English speaking countries
- Pricing based on the length of a manuscript, not the number of revisions
- An online workflow making use easy anytime, anywhere

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

- Offer non-native English speaking authors access to comprehensive language review before submission
- Eliminate the need for administrators, editors, or peer reviewers to correct grammatical, language, spelling and tone errors
- Avoid rejecting submission solely because of problems with language and tone
- Reduce potential peer reviewer bias or rejection based on poor grammar, not poor science
- Capitalize on the latest research from emerging regions without compromising your office's time and resources

Increasingly, international authorship is factored into determining a journal's relevance in the field. With the rise in research from emerging regions, reviewing submissions from non-native English speaking authors can present real problems for publishers. The options are to either waste time cleaning up a submission or reject the submission based on language problems even though the science is good. ScholarOne's partnership with American Journal Experts lets you expand your journal's global publishing by increasing the quality of submissions from non-English speaking authors before they enter your review process, reducing your time to publish.

CONTENT REVIEW BY EXPERTS

American Journal Experts is a pioneer in STM research paper editing. They recruit only editors from 15 highly ranked US research universities, and are a trusted partner to some of the world's leading publishers. A senior editor reviews each submission and assigns it to a reviewer with expertise in the field of study. The manuscript then goes through a rigorous review process to ensure spelling and grammar are correct, the tone is accurate, and any confusing language has been edited for clarification. When all appropriate changes are made, American Journal Experts issues an editing certificate, verifying confidence in the quality of English in the paper.

OFFER YOUR AUTHORS CONFIDENCE AND SECURITY

Non-native English speaking authors often have manuscripts that are technically sound, but they may struggle with the language barrier that exists when writing in another language. ScholarOne's partnership with American Journal Experts offers them an easy solution. The authors' review cost is based on the length of their manuscripts, not the amount of editing required. This means that no matter how strong their English writing skills are, they are guaranteed a set fee. Authors are also assured that when their manuscripts go through the peer review process, their work will be judged on scientific merit with no potential bias based on language barriers.

STREAMLINE YOUR WORKFLOW

ScholarOne's partnership with American Journal Experts eliminates the administrative effort required to copyedit submissions from non-native English speakers. Because American Journal Experts editors are matched to papers by fields of study, they know the common terminology and phrasing within their disciplines. They will not, however, provide any content peer review. The result – a well written submission ready to enter your peer review process from the start.
